HUNT TWELVE NEW BOMBS IN MAILS

Great War Show Witnessed by Two Million

12 MORE BOMBS IN MAILS SOUGHT BY POSTAL AGENTS; CANADA JOINS IN RED HUNT

Federal Inspectors Get Word to Watch for Other Infernal Machines.

ADDRESSES NOT KNOWN

Dominion Secret Service Men Here—U. S. May Offer Reward for Senders.

Officers engaged in the nation-wide hunt for the May Day bomb plotters were on the alert today for twelve bombs believed to have been dropped in the mails in addition to the twenty-five already accounted for. Whether the additional twelve were mailed in New York was not stated. While nobody would assume responsibility for the report, it was said that officials of the Post Office Department had learned of the extra dozen infernal machines in the night. Post office inspectors were ordered to get them.

Earlier Chief Post Office Inspector William E. Cochran had announced that he believed all the bombs which had been mailed here had been found. Inspector Owen A. Egan of the Bureau of Combustibles, continuing his examination of the machines, is said to have discovered that in more than one instance the sulphuric acid had almost eaten away the protecting cork.

"Warn everybody," Egan said, "that wherever there is one of these machines care must be taken from now on to see that it is kept standing on end. Otherwise there is likely to be an explosion without warning."

CANADIAN AGENTS JOIN IN HUNT FOR BOMB MAKERS.
The organized hunt for the Red conspirators assumed international proportions today when agents of the Canadian Secret Service arrived in New York and joined Chief Cochran and other Post Office inspectors in conference at the Post Office.

Members of the detective forces heard from Washington to-day that Government officials were considering offering a reward for the arrest of the plotters.

Of the clues to the bomb senders that have been found up to date—and they are not many—detectives continue to place most of their hope in the greenish basket-weave box-factory paper made by Dejonge & Co. of Duane Street, sold to only a few box makers in some of the larger cities and used by the man who sold the anarchists the pastboard.

GIRL FOUND SLAIN RESEMBLES LOST NEW YORK WOMAN

Connecticut Authorities Send for City Police to Aid in Identification.

A striking similarity as to age, size, color of hair and condition of teeth between Ethel Woolsey of Springfield, Queens Borough, who disappeared April 11, and the body of a young woman found under a pile of slabs in an abandoned sawmill yard in the woods near New Canaan, Conn., yesterday, set New York policemen to work on the case to-day.

It is believed that some mark of identification was found on the body of the New Canaan victim which led the authorities of that village to ask the Bureau of Missing Persons at Headquarters for assistance. Officers will be sent to New Canaan.

The body of the victim of the New Canaan tragedy is that of a girl about 25 years old, 5 feet 5 1/2 inches tall and weighing 130 pounds. The hair is dark brown, Miss Woolsey was 25 years old, 5 feet 5 1/2 inches tall, weighed 130 pounds and had dark brown hair.

In the right upper jaw of the body found at New Canaan is a false tooth bridged with gold to the next tooth. Miss Woolsey had such a piece of bridge work in her upper jaw, but her mother thinks it was on the left side. Several teeth were missing from Miss Woolsey's lower jaw. The same condition applies to the lower jaw of the body found at New Canaan.

RICH LANDLORD SON TRIES TO EVICT HIS PARENTS PAST 80

Court Dismisses Petition Against Aged Couple Unable to Pay Their Rent.

Eighty-four-year-old Samuel Jaffe and his eighty-year-old wife can continue to live in their home in the tenement at No. 232 East 50th Street, although their son Pinkus, who owns the building and is wealthy, tried to dispossess them yesterday in proceedings before Magistrate Solomon Oppenheimer in the Sixth District Municipal Court, because they hadn't paid their rent for April.

Pinkus Jaffe owns one of the largest drug stores in the city at 50th Street and Lexington Avenue. He owns the building in which it is located, another building downtown and the tenement house at No. 232 East 50th Street, where his aged and feeble parents live.

Samuel Jaffe and his wife have been unable to work for years and have been dependent on their children. Aaron, now a lieutenant with the Army of Occupation at Coblenz, is their chief mainstay. Pinkus had helped and a daughter contributed when she could.

But there was a quarrel, it is said, between Mrs. Jaffe, the elder, and Lena, the wife of Pinkus. After that Pinkus didn't help his parents, it is alleged, as he had been doing. The allotments for March, and then there was a hitch. There was no money in the house and the rent was due April 1. Twenty-five dollars. But Papa and Mamma Jaffe didn't worry. They lived in Pinkus's house and Pinkus was their son.

They found under their door yesterday morning a sheet of paper. It was a summons to appear in the Sixth District Court on complaint of Lena Jaffe, agent for Pinkus Jaffe, owner of the house at No. 232 East 50th Street, to show cause why they should not be evicted for non-payment of rent.

Daniel W. Blumenthal, the "poor man's counsel," and Gerald W. Schwartz, another lawyer, appeared in aged couple's behalf and invoked the power of the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act to keep the couple in their home while their son is serving in the army.

There were tears in the eyes of Magistrate Oppenheimer when he was ready to pass on the case.

"I have served in the Poor Man's Court for nearly ten years," he said, "and I have heard many sad stories in dispossession cases, but it is very hard for me to believe that the son of an old couple such as now appears before me should insist that his parents be thrown out of their little home only to live in the street so far as this son is concerned."

Then, basing his decision on the fact that the law had not been complied with because there had not been personal service of the summons, and on the leniency granted by the Relief Act, the Magistrate added:

"I feel that it is my duty as a judge and as a friend of the poor to dismiss this petition."

$35,000,000 MORE CAPITAL.

Big Increase Made by United Cigar Stores Company.
UNITED CIGAR STORES COMPANY, May 3.—The United Cigar Stores Company of New York, a corporation organized in 1911, today announced that it had increased its capital stock from $30,000,000 to $65,000,000.

Mrs. Vernon Castle Wed To Captain R. E. Treman, A Childhood Sweetheart

Married in Little Church Around Corner at Noon By Dr. Houghton.

Mrs. Vernon Castle was married at noon to-day in the Church of the Transfiguration by the Rev. Dr. George Clark Houghton, to Captain Robert Elias Treman of Ithaca, recently discharged from service.

The former dancer had endeavored to keep the marriage a secret and denied that it was to take place until discovered by reporters at the marriage license bureau. The wedding was the culmination of a boy and girl romance interrupted by the girl's dancing career and her marriage to her famous husband, now dead.

The bride was given away by her mother, Mrs. Elroy Foster, and her attendant was Mrs. Clement Amory of Morris Heights when Mrs. Castle attended to her duties three years ago.

Present at the wedding were Major Sherman Pratt, best man; Capt. John M. Gauntlett of Ithaca; Henry Palmer of Geneva and Henry Lewis of Elmira, classmates of the bridegroom; Miss Katherine Schuman, daughter of President Schuman of Cornell University; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Purcell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Treman, the bridegroom's parents.

A strange coincidence of the occasion is the similarity of names between the late Vernon Castle and the husband of his widow. Capt. Treman is tall and slender, blond, Irish in face and in the middle of a handsome man, and Mr. Castle was tall and slender and blond in face and in the middle of a handsome man.

His father, the well-known man perhaps in Ithaca, the family home, and a political power up-State, was a chum of the late Dr. Hubert T.

VICTORY PAGEANT ON FIFTH AVENUE GREAT WAR SHOW

Every Activity of Army Shown in Panorama to Stir Interest in Loan Drive.

The greatest free war show ever given was witnessed by 2,000,000 people in Fifth Avenue this afternoon. It was called the Panorama of Victory and, starting from 110th Street at 1:30 o'clock, filled the avenue between that point and Washington Arch until almost dusk. The exhibition displayed to millions who did not go to the war more of the workings of our armies and the forces behind the armies than any soldier or officer participating in the contest saw or possibly could see.

Every branch of active service and every phase of war activity in the preparation of supplies, the transportation and handling of troops, the care of wounded and the work of semi-military and civilian activities was shown in a series of moving floats and marching men. In line, too, were all sorts of trophies captured by our armies from the Germans.

Half an hour prior to the start of the parade a flying squadron of our minute men and band soloists left 110th Street in trucks and the millions along the line of march were canvassed for subscriptions to the Victory Loan.

The spectacular feature of the parade was an immense French observation balloon of the type used all along the battle front. The balloon was lashed to two trucks and as a precaution to keep it from breaking away 100 doughboys marched along with it holding to lines.

At 52nd Street the balloon was particularly deflated to allow it to pass through the Arch of Jewels. It was inflated again in the Plaza with gas from a storage tank. At Liberty Arch a detour was made around Madison Square.

In the parade were 1,000 soldiers of a type which has never been seen on the streets of New York before. They are the first of the volunteers who are going abroad, $5,000 strong.

ITALIAN PEACE DELEGATES EXPECTED BACK NEXT WEEK; AUSTRIA IS MADE NEUTRAL

Treaty to Prevent German Alliance With Russian Bolsheviki—Americans Reject Plan to Guarantee $5,000,000,000 German Loan.

PARIS, May 3. (Associated Press).—The Italian situation took a more favorable turn late to-day. The indications were that some arrangement would be made for Italy to be represented when the peace treaty was presented to the Germans next week.

PETROGRAD TAKEN BY FINNISH ARMY, BELIEF IN PARIS

Bolsheviki, Beaten by Siberian Armies, Also Reported Fleeing From Eastern Front.

PARIS, Friday, May 2. (Associated Press).—Petrograd has probably been taken by the Finns, according to information believed to be trustworthy which has reached Paris.

HELSINGFORS, Thursday, May 1.—Defeated along the entire eastern front by the Siberian armies, the Bolsheviki forces are retiring in disorder, the Russian newspaper Raskaya Plesni says.

LONDON, May 3. (United Press).—Reports received from British official sources to-day indicated the Bolsheviki are compelling civilian evacuation of Petrograd and a number of other places in the vicinity.

The movement, it was said, is being carried out according to plans announced a year ago, whereby withdrawal was to be made to Moscow and other grain centers to enable more efficient feeding of the population.

Gen. Richardson, commander of the American forces in northern Russia, has wired American Headquarters here that he has completed inspection of his men and "found their morale excellent and the situation satisfactory."

GERMAN MILITARISM IS BROKEN FOREVER, HINDENBURG ADMITS

Field Marshal Resigns and Gen. Groener is Mentioned as Successor.

COBLENZ, Friday, May 2. (Associated Press).—German militarism has been broken forever, is a statement attributed to Field Marshal von Hindenburg, reports of whose resignation have been received here.

Gen. Groener, former head of the Department of Munitions and who has been the Field Marshal's chief of staff, is mentioned as his chief successor, according to news received here from Kolberg.

The territorial status of Germany as definitely settled by the Council of Three yesterday, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris, will protect the general insecurity of Europe. The chapter in which these decisions are incorporated, he adds, prevents an alliance with the Russian Bolsheviki and forbids the incorporation in Germany of German Austria.

As regards German Austria, M. Hutin says its peace delegates will be called to Paris and Austria will be made a neutral republic under the aegis of the League of Nations with the prohibition that she shall not ally or incorporate herself with Germany.

The Council of Three, M. Hutin declares, also adopted a chapter in the Peace Treaty defining the status of Alsace and Lorraine which are given absolutely to France.

Authoritative disapproval of a plan that has been advanced for the rehabilitation of European financial credit was expressed to-day by the financial members of the American delegation. It was made known definitely that the United States would not be a party to any joint action having for its purpose the restoration of German business.

It had been proposed by the British that a German bond issue of $5,000,000,000 be arranged with Great Britain, France, the United States and the other Allied and associated powers as guarantors. The American delegates took the position that such a plan would be not only impracticable but contrary to American precedent.

It was explained that the British proposal included the appointment of the issue among all the powers, including even the small, newly-created Governments. The appointment was to be based upon the relative wealth of the signatories.

One objection raised was that the failure of any one of the guarantors to bear its share would result in increasing the burden and responsibility of the others, thus creating a situation obviously unjust.
